

SUBSCRIPTION FACTS

-  When ordering a complete manual from the TMDC Call Center, updates to that manual are free of charge for one year. Renewal information will be sent prior to expiration of the free subscription.
-  Subscriptions are available by individual manual. Subscription prices are available on the web at <http://pubs.hawkerbeechcraft.com>.
-  All subscriptions begin when ordered and continue for one full year (multiple year or multiple copy subscriptions are available upon request).
-  Mode of shipment is determined by size and weight of each mailing. Special requests are not accepted.
-  Customer is responsible for any and all customs fees associated with the mailing of a subscription publication.
-  Subscriptions cannot be "back dated". Missing revisions may be purchased through the TMDC Call Center before starting a subscription.
-  All subscriptions include manual reissues.
-  Subscriptions are available for non-aircraft owners.
-  Manual subscriptions to different addresses are accepted. Submit a separate Subscription Order Form for each location and provide complete address information for each. The same Sold To Customer Number should be on each Subscription Order Form.
-  Subscriptions to Interactive Maintenance Libraries are available in both single and network versions.
-  Service bulletins, safety communiques and model communiques are available free of charge on the web for 90 days from release. The entire library (Beechcraft and/or Hawker) is available by subscribing to the Online Service Information (OSI) library.
-  To subscribe to flight related items, i.e., Service Bulletins, Communiqués and/or Pilot's Operating Handbook/FAA Approved Flight Manual publications, please use the SOFI order form and provide the airplane serial number to receive these publications free of charge.
-  If you have any questions or comments concerning subscriptions, please email us at tmdc@hawkerbeechcraft.com or call 800.796.2665 or 316.676.8238.
